Office Action Summary

Art Unit: 1754

Applicant's election with traverse of Group I in Paper No. 10 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that there is no search burden (class 219). This is not found persuasive because there is a considerable search burden. The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A) In claim 2, 'deep fuel rich strategy' is subjective and unclear as to the steps required.

B) In claim 8, 'enhancement' is unclear; it appears that additional oxygen is meant.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Stokes '402.

Art Unit: 1754

The reference teaches in columns 2 and 3 removing carbon and water from carbon black off-gas and recycling. The injection of oxygen is taught.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stokes '402.

Stokes teaches removal by adsorption- it does not specify PSA. However, using PSA is a known form of adsorption and is thus an obvious expedient to remove water by 'adsorption'.

Claims 4-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stokes as applied to claims 1-3 above, and further in view of Lynam.' 518.

Stokes does not teach plasma heating, however Lynam does in column 5, to make carbon black. Preheating the gases of Stokes is an obvious expedient to assure efficient combustion and restore heat lost during the water-removal steps.
